

COMING TOGETHER AROUND MILITARY FAMILIES®

DUTY TO CARE!

SUPPORTING YOUNG CHILDREN THROUGH CHALLENGING TIMES

This training will provide opportunities to gain an understanding of the following topics in the context of military families:

- Core needs of infants and toddlers •
- Impact of stress and trauma on very young children •
  - Resiliency in families •
- Collaborating with military and civilian agencies •
  - Professional self-care •

Healthcare, Early Childhood Education, Family Support and Mental Health professionals supporting military families are invited.

New York National Guard
Joint Force Headquarters
330 Old Niskayuna Road
Latham, New York 12110-3514

Register for this training online at www.zerotothree.org/ctamf

For Registration Questions, Contact:

Secely Smith

202-638-1144 (registration closes on July 30, 2010)

ssmith@zerotothree.org

This is a free training for professionals. Materials and food will be provided. CEU's available

Photo by: Allison Silberberg

TRAINING DATES: AUGUST 18th and 19th 2010