Online Tools Help Working New Yorkers Find Out What Earned Income Tax Credit Can Mean to You

The State Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance (OTDA) has launched two new web-based initiatives: a comprehensive directory of state-provided resources for working families, and an interactive Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) estimator to show working families how valuable the credits can be to them. The "Resources for Working Families" can be found on OTDA's web page, www.otda.state.ny.us, and the EITC estimator at www.otda.state.ny.us/main/reform/estimator.
