

Paragraph (1) of subdivision (d) of section 421.27 is amended to read as follows:

(d) (1) Except [as authorized herein and] as set forth in subdivision (h) of this section, the authorized agency must deny an application to be an approved adoptive parent or revoke the approval of an approved adoptive parent when a criminal history record of the prospective or approved adoptive parent reveals a conviction for :

(i) a felony conviction at any time involving;

(a) child abuse or neglect;

(b) spousal abuse;

(c) a crime against a child, including child pornography;

(d) a crime involving violence, including rape, sexual assault, or homicide, other than a crime involving physical assault or battery[, unless the prospective adoptive parent or approved adoptive parent demonstrates that:

(1) such denial or revocation will create an unreasonable risk of harm to the physical or mental health of the child; and

(2) approval of the application or continuing approval will not place the child's safety in jeopardy and will be in the best interests of the child]; or

(ii) a felony conviction within five years for physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense [, unless the prospective adoptive parent or approved adoptive parent demonstrates that:

(a) such denial will create an unreasonable risk of harm to the physical or mental health of the child; and

(b) approval of the applicant will not place the child's safety in jeopardy and will be in the best interests of the child].

Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, with regard to an adoptive parent fully approved prior to October 1, 2008, the provisions of this paragraph only apply to mandatory disqualifying convictions that occur on or after October 1, 2008.

Subdivision (k) of section 421.27 is repealed.

Paragraph (1) of subdivision (e) of section 443.8 is amended to read as follows:

(e)(1) Except as [authorized herein and as] set forth in this section, the authorized agency must deny an application for certification or approval as a certified or approved foster parent or deny an application for renewal of the certification or approval of an existing foster parent submitted on or after October 1, 2008 or revoke the certification or approval of an existing foster parent when a criminal history record of the prospective or existing foster parent reveals a conviction for:

(1) a felony conviction at any time involving:

(a) child abuse or neglect;

(b) spousal abuse;

(c) a crime against a child, including child pornography; or

(d) a crime involving violence, including rape, sexual assault, or homicide, other than a crime involving physical assault or battery[; unless the applicant or approval or certification as a foster parent or the certified or approved foster parent demonstrates that;

- (1) such denial or revocation will create an unreasonable risk of harm to the physical or mental health of the child; and
- (2) continued certification, approval or renewal will not place the child's safety in jeopardy and will be in the best interests of the child]; or
- (ii) a felony conviction within the past five years for physical assault, battery, or a drug-related offense[; unless the applicant for certification or approval as a foster parent or the certified or approved foster parent demonstrates that:
  - (a) such denial or revocation will create an unreasonable risk of harm to the physical or mental health of the child; and
  - (b) continued certification, approval or renewal will not place the child's safety in jeopardy and will be in the best interests of the child].

Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, with regard to a foster parent fully certified or approved prior to October 1, 2008, the provisions of this paragraph only apply to mandatory disqualifying convictions that occur on or after October 1, 2008.

Subdivision (k) of section 443.8 is repealed.
