Enclosed is a copy of the report on the survey of foster boarding home programs conducted in January, 1988.

The report contains a wealth of information on the status of foster boarding home programs in New York State, as well as recommendations for action.

I would be interested in your comments on the contents of the report, as well as your suggestions for implementing the recommendations. My staff and I look forward to working with you to continue to improve foster boarding home care in New York State.

Sincerely,

Joseph Semidei
Deputy Commissioner
Family and Children Services
