

Considerations for Developing a Visit Coaching Plan

1. What attachment needs have been identified by the parent to be met during visits?
2. How can the developmental needs of the child(ren) be met during the visit?
3. What emotional needs of the child(ren) will be focused on during the visit?
4. What are the needs of the parent(s) to be considered during the visit?
5. What strengths can the parent(s) bring to the visit?
6. How can the visit be used as an opportunity to help the parent(s) identify and meet each child's needs?
7. How will the parent be coached to keep negative feelings and behaviors out of the visit?
8. How will the safety and risk concerns be worked on during the visit?
9. How will the needed activities and strategies be coached for a successful visit?
