Graceful Log off of VDI

When logging off of your CONNECTIONS VDI Session, you should always use one of the below options. Do not close the session by clicking on the red "X" in the upper right corner of the window.
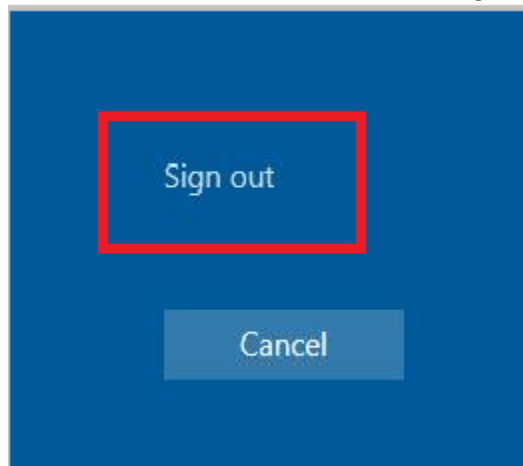

- Click the "Send Ctrl-Alt-Delete" button at the top of the VMWare Horizon Client:

  Then click "Sign out"

- Type Control-Alt-End while in RDS, and click "Sign Out"

- Go to Options->Send Ctrl-Alt-Delete in the VMWare Horizon Client

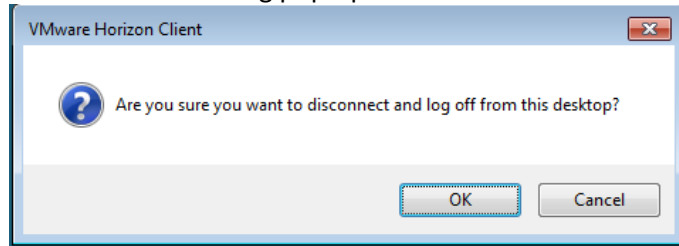

Then click "Sign out"

- Go to Options->Disconnect and Log Off

Then click OK on the following pop-up

- From within the VMware session (not on your actual desktop), Click the Start/Windows Button (Red Circle)->Click on the person silhouette (Blue Circle)->Click Sign Out
